Another South American Scheme Brought to Light.

Light.

Sew York, February 23d.—The Graphic's Washington correspondent has unearthed another South American scheme, coincident with Blaine's recent foreign policy, that has not heretofore come to light, and which is almost on a par with the Peruvian Company and Credit Industrial. The project was to work a great silver mine in Bolivia. A syndicate was to be formed, with something like $75,000,000 capital, and a boranza, by the side of which the Nevada lodes would appear puny, was promised by the manager. A FATUOUS STRATAGEM The Mormons must have a very poor opinion of the intelligence of Congress and from the character of the efforts they are against polygamy. They are represented as having prepared numerous petitions, setting forth that the petitioners know ennobling system; and to these petitions they have procured the signatures of all the Mormon children. Surely very little wit went to the devising of that measure? For as a matter of course the views of chilcould be supposed voluntary and free from bias, would be of no more value that the views of the cows and sheep of the territory. Polygamous children have no knowledge of any other life than that which they have lived. They cannot have any adequate idea of a home. Assuredly they have no notion of what a father means. From the nature of the case they are incapable of giving any evidence on the question. But why have not the Mormons procured the signatures of their polygamous wives to these petitions? A few years ago they could have done this easily enough, because then it was possible to coerce the poor women. At present perhaps they have grown a little bolder through the contact with Gentile civilization, and it may be that their indorsement of the system is not to be had. Not that their indorsement of it would justify any change whatever in the prevalent convictions regarding it. The evidence against polygamy has been summed up, and the judgment has been delivered. Neither sophistry, trickery, bluster nor sentiment can for a moment weaken the national certainty that the Mormon system is evil in all its effects, tendencies and relations, and that it must be stamped out at whatever cost. The polygamous Mormons may as well save themselves the trouble of making their children sign these preposterous petitions. The testimony of children that their lawless parents have found satisfaction in their lawlessness cannot change the situation even if it were to be credited. No quantity of petitions, no number of signatures, can affect the issue one particle. Polygamy must cease. That is the decree of the American people, and that decree will be enforced, no matter who is hurt. The Mormons will have to relinquish their favorite vice, and they might as well understand this now as at a later period, for it would save them some time and friction.

It has, in fact, expelled him after he had taken the oath, and in the teeth of Gladstone's declaration that it had exceeded its power in preventing him from taking his seat. It is clear, therefore, that the expulsion is really a second act of lawless tyranny on the part of the majority. The House had no right to prevent him from taking the oath, and therefore its action on that head was unconstitutional and invalid. Bradlaugh acted upon this assumption, and took the oath. Whereupon the majority once more overstepped their jurisdiction, and expelled him for refusing obedience to their lawless proceedure. The House is thus placed in a thor-

It has expelled a legally elected member, who has complied with all the constitutional requirements, and it has done this for no other reason than because he would not that those who have excised Hell from their recognize as lawful a decree which the Bibles and their creeds, may presently prohead of the Government has openly proclaimed to be unlawful. HAVE MADE A FOOTBALL!

Shall we say it? Too long manufacturers have made a football of Muslin Underwear, cheapening it to the last degree by flimsy material and hasty needlework. They began badly and for a time succeeded badly, as no one bought such goods except when by necessity compelled. It is so in the beginning of every new industry. The time is coming when only good work will be bought and sold, and ladies will no more think of making their Underwear at home than they do to-day of making Men's Clothing at home. At present there is no lack of Underwear in the market; indeed, there is plenty, more than enough to supply everyone, but the most of it is of the old inferior sort, sold often at ridiculously high prices to cover its defects. But for the difficulty of getting good work at low prices, the making of Underwear at home would no longer thrive. For some time past we have paid special attention to bettering the quality of Underwear found on our shelves, and to-day, with only a partial knowledge of the satisfaction that has come to our customers, through serving them faithfully in this branch of our business, we are content to rest our trade in the future on this: That we shall succeed only as we succeed in keeping what from time to time shall be the most worthy and satisfactory work the country produces, at the most favorable

Yesterday, as Sherwood and his son were crossing their farm, they saw some Chinese engaged in mining with rockers. Sherwood approached, and remonstrated with them for trespassing upon and destreying his property, and ordered them to leave.

One of the Chinamen, with uplifted shovel, started to make an assault upon Sherwood. The latter warned him off, and teld the Chinaman that if he did not keep his distance he would shoot him. The Chinaman did not heed the warning, and Sherwood claims that he killed him with his shotgun in self-defense. Michael L. Rodrigue has brought suit to recover $50,000 damages from the Sutter Street Railroad Company, on a complaint which sets forth that plaintiff boarded one of The Train-Wrecker Case.

AUBURN, February 23d.—To-merrow morning the presecution in the train-wrecker case will introduce their last witness, a Deputy Sheriff, who would have been examined today had he been in town. This trial has been conducted much more rapidly than the former, and has made but little stir in the town.

Which sets forth that plaintiff boarded one of defendant's cars, but was thrown off and had a foot and ankle crushed by the car wheels. The case of Mary Edwards vs. the Sutter Street Railroad Company was called in Judge Lawler's Court to-day, and continued until March 2d. The claim is for $10,000 dawages, alleged to have been sustained by plaintiff town. Ordered on the Calendar for Hearing.

In the case of George Messersmith, con-victed of wife murder and sentenced to the State Prison for life, the order denying him a new trial was to day set aside by Department Twe of the Supreme Court, and the cause ordered on the bank calendar for hearing. NEVADA, February accused of being implicated in the recent robbery of the two old men, Whitney and Gibson, had his hearing to-day, the examination being conducted with closed doors. He was held to answer, with bail placed at $2,500, which he was unable to give.

Two of the Supreme Court granted a new trial.

Bey Killed by a Hotel Elevator.

San Francisco, February 231.—George Bergin, a native of Australia, 17 years of age, a bell-boy employed at the Baldwin Hotel, was caught under the baggage elevator and killed this evening. One of the rules of the hotel is that no one except the porter is permitted to ride on this elevator. It is supposed young Bergin, who was shortly before the accident seen on the fifth floor, stole a ride, and when near the first floor jumped off before it reached the level of the floor, fell, and was caught by the edge of the elevator in its descent, was crushed to death.

The Ceity's Health.

One case of small-pox has been reported at the Health Office to-day. Eleven deaths were reported yesterday and 28 to-day. The weekly death record is already 10 more than for the corresponding week of last year, but is lighter than for the previous two or three weeks. Ninety-eight deaths have, so far, been recorded. They resulted principally from lung and throat diseases. A few cases of trypical feet and measles have proved fatal.
